J. JOHNSON SURRENDERS K. P. ENCAMPMENT JULY 24-30 ON PARADE WAY KNIGHTS AND DAUGHTERS OF TABOR AT "Y" JULY 27-30

ARE YOU READY? 15,000 ELKS READY TO MARCH DOWN ON KANSAS CITY.

Sunday, August 1st, is the last chance that you will have to become members of this Order. 200 men will be initiated on this date. On account of the great number of applicants, Lyric Hall has been secured for this occasion. All applicants will assemble at the Elks Hall promptly at 5:30 p. m., and march to Lyric Hall headed by the degree team. Those desiring to become members of this Order before the Elks Convention can secure applications from any member of the Order or from the Secretary at the Elks Hall, 1420 E. 18th Street. On account of the great amount of work to be done between now and the convention, this will be your last chance to join. The following physicians, who are members of the Elks will examine all applicants: Dr. W. H. Bruce, Dr. E. B. Ramsey, Dr. Tillman, Dr. R. C. Hayden, Dr. Brookins, Dr. D. M. Miller, Dr. T. C. Brown, Dr. J. H. Williams, Dr. A. Porter Davis, Dr. J. O.

MRS. WILLA GLENN PEEBLES.
The splendid manager of the Sun who is taking a well-earned vacation and visiting relatives in Kansas.

Henley, Dr. Howard M. Smith, Dr. T. J. McCampbell. Remember this is your last chance before the Grand Lodge.

Every citizen of our great city should open the doors of their homes so that our visitors can have places to sleep. We need 500 more homes to accommodate the thousands of visitors. Those that have rooms to let call Elks Hall, Bell phone Grand 895. Remember our visitors must have places to eat and sleep. We have not enough restaurants to feed them. Remember your duty Kansas City.

For the first time in history the great city of New York City has extended an invitation to a Negro Fraternal Organization to meet in their city.

The Elks of New York City are coming to Kansas City to make a great fight for the next convention. Some of the most prominent men of that city headed by James Anderson of the Amsterdam News, Counselor C. A. Hughes, Alderman Harris, Asst. District Attorney J. Frank Wheaton, and Dave McDaniels will arrive in our city early and establish their headquarters so as to be prepared to make such a fight as the Elks of Kansas City made last year at Atlantic City.

Boston, Mass., Cambridge, Mass., and Philadelphia Elks are going to make a great fight for next year's convention and they have secured headquarters on 18th street, where they will entertain the delegates.

Chicago is going to make a great fight for next year's convention and expect to keep this old town up all night with their band and boosters.

Every business man on 18th street, Vine and 12th street is requested to decorate their places not later than Saturday, August 21st, with white and purple bunting, and the Elks welcome banners and flags. Let us make the above streets a garden of flags and bunting.

Every citizen entertaining Elks at their homes put out the old American flag and let our visitors know that they are welcome.

On Sunday morning, August 22, about 9:30 there should be 10,000 of our people on 18th street to welcome Grand Exalted Ruler McMechen of Baltimore, who will be met at the depot by the entire membership of Mid-West Lodge, headed by the famous Second Regiment band.

MADAME HUBBARD'S PLACE.

In visiting Madame Hubbard's, the pioneer milliner, 1607 "A" E. 18th St., Bell phone CHITON 4730, we find one of the coziest places that one can imagine.

Naturally for one who remains, success comes, and Mrs. Hubbard has plodded away until she is getting results and has proven by her genius that it can be done. Instead of a few satisfied customers she pleases hundreds. She has the best quality hosiery at the lowest prices for men and women and children. Her millinery compares favorably with anything in town and without exaggeration from the writer's own view of the matter you would agree with her by visiting the store—that you were in one of the exclusive shops of the downtown districts. You will find afternoon hats, evening hats, tailored, and in fact hats are exclusive in design and superior in quality, we find here as no place else in the city the prices certainly beat the H. C. of L.

Mrs. Hubbard's establishment is a credit to the city, the state and race at large. We doff our hats to Kansas City's pioneer milliner and rare business woman. The visitors to our city will not have seen all points of interest in Kansas City until they see Mrs. Hubbard's place.

Mrs. A. M. Chandler.

GOOD MORNING.

Advertise in the "Sun." Advertising is letting the people know about business, where it is, what is for sale, what the price is, and who is doing the selling. The more people who get this information the larger the advertising. Hence, advertising in a paper depends largely on its circulation. The larger the circulation, the more effective the advertising.

MR. J. J. ALLEN GOES EAST.

Mr. J. J. Allen, president of the World Wonder Oil & Gas Co., left yesterday with his chauffeur in his elegant Hudson Super Six for Chicago where he will meet Mrs. Allen, who has been visiting relatives and friends in St. Louis for about ten days, and is awaiting his arrival in that city. They will stop at the Vincennes Hotel and after visiting two weeks will motor on to several other eastern cities where Mr. Allen hopes to secure a much needed rest.

THE JACKSON COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION.

Will put on a big Emancipation Celebration and carnival August 4th and 5th, at Independence fair grounds, Independence, Mo. There will be auto races by negro speed demons from K. C. Mo. and K. C. Kas., also motor cycle races and horse races. Plenty of good music and other attractions. Parties wishing to display or operate concessions see

HON. E. E. McJIMSEY
Editor of the Springfield Republican and Missouri's Next Republican Governor.

As a part of the progressive program which Mr. McJimsey, if elected Governor, would favor, the attention of the Missouri voter is invited to the following:

- A new State Constitution.
- Reduction of taxes wherever possible without impairment of the public service or the imposition of unnecessary handicaps on the constantly growing requirements of the public institutions of the State.
- Repeal or radical modification of the burdensome State Income Tax.
- A system of hard-surface highways connecting every County and community center.
- Giving to each school district the right to make such levies as in its judgment are necessary for school purposes.
- The creation of County High or Community Schools with better qualified teachers, which can only be secured by better pay for teachers.
- Every possible encouragement, consistent with sound business principles, looking to the betterment of farm life in Missouri.
- Liberal support for the State University, State Teachers Colleges, Lincoln Institute, School of Mines, State Tuberculosis Sanitarium, State Fair, State Hospitals, Poultry and Agricultural Experiment Stations, Reform Schools, etc.
- Honest elections both in city and county.
- The budget system in legislative appropriations.
- The establishment of more cordial and more mutually helpful relations between employer and employee.
- The enactment of child welfare laws with ample provision for their enforcement.
- Adequate transportation facilities—steam, trolley and truck roads—in keeping with the farm, factory and commercial requirements of the State.
- The development of the State's now unused water powers.
- Zealous encouragement of factory building along side the farm and near the source of cheap electrical power.
- A faithful and impartial enforcement of and the fullest possible protection under the laws for every citizen without respect to creed, color or condition.
- Holding Sheriffs and other officials to a strict responsibility for the safety of persons committed to their keeping.
- A survey of the soil and under-soil resources of the State, to the end that their possibilities shall become known and their utilization and development secured.
- The working out of our own problems at home without shunting them off on the already over-worked and over-burdened Government at Washington.
- The square deal for all folk and for all kinds of business in Missouri.

MONARCHS INTO SECOND PLACE.

The Indianapolis A. B. C. was defeated yesterday, 5 to 7.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 21.—By winning from the Indianapolis A. B. C. club today the Kansas City Monarchs went into second place in the negro national league. Rogan pitched great ball, four of Indianapolis's runs being made on errors.

Batteries—Rogan and Rodriguez; Williams, McClure and MacKey.

NEGRO WOMEN IN A HARDING CLUB.

Negro women, several of whom were the wives of negro ministers, met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. B. Sullivan, 908 East Tenth street and organized a Harding and Coolidge Club. The following officers were elected: Mrs. W. H. Prince, president; Mrs. L. B. Sullivan, vice-president; Mrs. J. C. Bell, secretary; Mrs. S. A. Bell, assistant secretary; Mrs. L. A. Gilmore, treasurer.

The club expects to enroll a thousand members by August 1. A headquarters will be opened as soon as suitable rooms can be found.

Mrs. Geo. W. Teeters arrived home from Cincinnati, Ohio, last week and Friday night a delightful reception was tendered her by the members and friends of Allen Chapel in the auditorium of the church. All Kansas City friends Mrs. Teeters welcome to our city, where her husband is beloved by all who know him.

The Sorosis Club having adopted the young grandson of their Secretary, Mrs. J. M. Carr, presented him with a Silver Loving Cup at their closing meeting Monday, for which he showed his thankfulness by grasping it eagerly, though only a month old.

Inquiries are coming in from members of the Old Settlers' Association, as to when a basket picnic is likely to be pulled off. President J. Dallas Bowser would be pleased to hear from any members interested with suggestions as to the time and place.

Mrs. W. A. Singfield, wife of Attorney Singfield of Little Rock, Ark., enroute to Pueblo and Denver, Colo., visited our city a few days and was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Beasley, 1810 E. 24th, Kansas City, Mo. Mrs. Singfield was shown a portion of the city and Longview farm on Sunday in Mr. and Mrs. Porter Carmack's beautiful car; on Monday Cliff Drive and the remainder of the boulevards were taken in through the courtesy of Mrs. Harvey McPhetridge. Mrs. Singfield declares Kansas City is one of the most beautiful cities in the west.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear mother and sister, Maggie Grant, who left us July 19, 1919.

I never dreamed that she could go
And leave me here alone;
Her soul seemed but a part of mine,
Her life my very own,
And now she's gone, the sunlight's gone.

Ah! ne'er to come again;
Her gentle words, her kind advice,
I listen for in vain.
But o'er across the Jasper sea,
Beside the gate she stands;
And waits for me with loving smile
And eager outstretched hands.
It won't be long—it can't be long,
'Till earthly trials are o'er.
Oh! my sweetheart, we'll meet again,
Where parting is no more.

Sadly missed by daughter, brothers and sisters.

Ethel Kemp.

BOUGHT HOMES.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Campbell, now residing at 1307 Euclid Ave., this city, bought a lovely 5 room Queen Ann modern home, 3826 E. 16th St., this week. They may occupy it some time soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Conner, who recently lived at 2122 Highland Ave., this city, have already moved into their beautiful home, 3824 E. 16th St., which they bought several weeks ago. They express much delight in living a real life in a real home.

Both sales were made by W. V. Harvey, President of the SERVICE REALTY COMPANY.

JACK JOHNSON IN JAIL.

The Former Champion Soon Will Begin Serving Sentence for Violation of White Slavery Act—Still Carries the "Bones."

Los Angeles, July 20.—Jack Johnson, former heavy weight champion pugilist of the world, who crossed the international boundary line from Lower California today, was brought here tonight from San Diego and lodged in the county jail. He probably will leave in the custody of federal officers tomorrow for Chicago to begin serving sentence for violation of the white slavery act federal officials said.

Johnson was not handcuffed at any time since his surrender, Sheriff Cline said. Fear that he would be handcuffed had deterred Johnson from surrender for several days, Sheriff Cline said. He added that Johnson had given no trouble and seemingly appreciated consideration shown him by the federal and state authorities.

Search of Johnson at the county jail revealed $450 and a pair of dice, county officials said.—From Wednesday Star.

"OLD KENTUCKY" at LOVE'S

Love's Theater will present a return engagement of "In Old Kentucky" on Wednesday, July 28th. In Old Kentucky was one of the greatest hits shown this season and is being brought back to Love's for a second showing. This play is being shown K. of P. week and should prove a great entertainment for the K. of P. visitors.

LETTING ONE'S LIGHT SHINE— THE BEAUTY OF A RADI- ATING PERSONALITY.

By J. Dallas Bowser.

There are stars in the firmament so remote from our planet that if they should become as dead worlds, astronomers tell us that it would be two or three years before their fate would be known. In like manner there are in every community quiet folk who live such unobtrusive lives apart from their fellows that should they die, weeks or months might elapse before their death became known to even their intimate acquaintances.

The writer of this knew a family, worthy, capable, educated and cultured, which lived so much unto itself that when death came to one of its members it was necessary for the surviving head to solicit among strangers for persons to sit up with the dead and to attend the funeral obsequies.

Only in Rome are the mourners usually hired for the occasion. Perhaps that was an extreme term which an acquaintance gave to an otherwise

MRS. A. M. CHANDLER.
The splendid circulation manager of the Kansas City Sun, who is making good in her department.

excellent young woman who seldom smiled from the family hearthstone. "If I lived a hermit's life such as you are doing, I would, Carrie Nation like, go into the Main Street and throw a stone through a window, only to get arrested and show that I was not a living dead woman."

There are public school teachers in all large communities who, outside of their school room, play no part in society, church or affairs for public uplift of any sort, content to draw their pay and dwell in complete solitude. Great indeed are the charms of solitude to a Diogenes in his tub, or going around with a lighted candle looking for an honest man, or to a Robinson Crusoe with his parrots and goats for company, yet it is far greater to mingle with one's fellowmen if only to feel the warmth of their sunshine, or to impart added glow to their sunsets.

Nor to do so is it necessary to preach like Paul or sing like Black Patti; nor to be a live wire in a secret lodge or a champion tennis player. A rush light or a tallow dip can set a house on fire or light the way into a dark cellar and the two widows' miles won for her a fame as undying as the millions of Rockefeller's.

Only in some way should everyone creep out of the shadow, out into the sunlight; out where there is room and need for one's personality to radiate beams that glisten and cheer and bless the lives of other pilgrims to the coveted shrine of contentment and happiness.
